

2010 LBJ Jerseys: Order Form

There is a limited number of jerseys still available, but to make sure your size is in stock, please contact George Culp [jerseys@lbj100bicycletour.com] first before sending in this order form and the payment. He will e-mail you back to let you know and how to order, if your order can still be carried out.

The cost will be $65 per jersey, money orders or checks only. The jerseys will be club cut, women's or men's, and will have a concealed full zipper. For further information and/or a size chart, go to <http://champ-sys.com/custom/cycling/size-chart>. The jerseys can be picked up at the morning of the ride, March 27, 2010, at the registration tent.

The picture as shown on the tour's website may not be final yet: the tour reserves the right to change the design without prior notification.
